Good Roads.

Much has been said about the incapability of the counties in this portion of the state to build turnpikes. Apparently this may be true, but there is no excuse for the miserable condition of some of the roads in Powell county. We have had much more rain this summer than usual, and too we have had much worse roads. The ruts in places are abundant, and the mud holes are very numerous. All of this is due to the lack of attention, for wherever the roads have recently been properly ditched and piled up in the middle, there are no ruts and mud, despite the heavy rains.

If we had pikes in the county it would be a cost to keep them, and it would be a great deal more than we could have good dirt roads for in the spring, summer and fall. Dirt roads with the proper attention are really better during these seasons than pikes, and it seems to us that we certainly should have good roads at these times of the year. It is the snow and freezes in the winter that ruin our dirt roads, but with the proper care, we can have good roads in the warmer seasons. This has been demonstrated this wet summer. If we can't have pikes let us have what we can afford, the very best dirt roads.

Corn and Alfalfa Special.

Hubert Vreeland, Commissioner of Agriculture of Kentucky, has arranged with the railroads for the transportation over the State of the "Corn and Alfalfa Special." The train will run in September, the object of the tour being to induce the farmers of Kentucky to take up the raising of alfalfa. Experts will accompany the train and make demonstrations and deliver lectures to the farmers at every stop. New kinds of corn will also be introduced. Every farmer in the State should hear these lectures and give the production of alfalfa a trial.

Alfalfa is a species of clover yielding from three to five crops in one season, and thriving equally as well in dry seasons as in wet. In fact, it grows better in dry countries and Kentucky, until recently, has been considered too wet for the best crops. However, of late the crop does well in Kentucky, and the cultivation of alfalfa is now considered one of the greatest profit, besides being a crop that will speedily restore fertility to impoverished soil.

Upon the death of Jim Willie Ware last week, Matt Tracy, who stands indicted for the shooting of the deceased was rearrested and examining trial set for Friday before Judge Derickson, at which time the defense answered not ready. Three Good and Just Reasons.

There are three reasons why mothers prefer One Minute Cough Cure: First. It is absolutely harmless. Second. It tastes good—children love it. Third. It cures Coughs, Croup and Whooping Cough, when other remedies fail. Sold by M. Rose.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the people in and around Clay City for the kindness shown us and our poor wounded boy while at Clay City, and the neighbors and friends after we brought him home, hoping none of you will ever have a relative or friend so foully murdered. But now as he is gone, all we want is justice and the law executed, just what is right in the sight of God and an honest jury.

Last, but not least, we desire to thank Bro. Irvin for the kindness shown our son during his fatal illness, and the loving talks he had with Jim Willie while he lay on his death bed. Would to God, the country was filled with such men as Bro. Irvin.

Respectfully,
T. B. WARE.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce ALBERT EASTER candidate for Representative in this, the 73rd. Legislative district, composed of Estill and Powell counties, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Work for Delinquent taxpayers.

Though rarely executed, there is a law in the Kentucky Statutes which provides that delinquent taxpayers may be made to work on the roads at one dollar per day to the amount of his indebtedness, including interest and cost of notifying him to appear on the ground ready for work.

In Powell, it has heretofore been the custom to collect the poll tax, if possible but failing, they were turned delinquent.

In this way our roads would receive in part, more attention which they stand sadly in need of. The poll tax is $1.50 per year with six per cent. penalty added and a charge of 25 cents process fee Making in all $1.84 to be worked out on the road.

When notice is served the delinquent is cited to appear at a specified time, at a certain place ready for work. If he fails to be promptly on hand, he is liable to a fine of $2.50 for each day that intervenes between the time he was notified to be on hand and the day he does appear. The full amount of costs and fines must be paid or worked out, and there is no appeal.

The latest addition to Caleb Powers' defense resources is a few insignificant newspapers who receive as compensation a copy of "My Own Story" and a few flattering letters. The culprit had the audacity to try to secure some space in this publication, but he might have as well tried to run Red river up stream, for we see his case just as thirty-six jurors did. No toleration for murderers in ours, whether they be Republicans or Democrats.

In the opinion and orders of the Railroad Commission, prepared by Chairman McChord, it is held that express companies are common carriers and therefore come within the meaning of Section 218 of the Constitution and Section 820 of the statutes. The Adams and Southern Express Companies, in retaliation for a tax imposed by the city rates in excess of the ordinary charges. The commission recommends indictment by the Sheldy county Grand jury.

The mix-up at Newport between the Mayor, Jailor and United States officers over which cell Caley should occupy is right interesting. They were all Republicans.

Republicans of Powell and Estill counties will hold a convention at Spout Spring August 19 to nominate a candidate for Representative. Mass conventions will be held at county seats August 15 to select delegates. Reuben Tipton is the announced candidate, though others are spoken of.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME WITH Kinloch PAINT

READY TO MIX NOT READY MIXED

Important Memorandum—One by a good painter will do the best quality of paint, costing say $50.00 (one dozen, $20.00) will last five years. The other gets applied by a dabbler ($25.00 labor, $50.00 paint) will last only two years. Thus the "per-year-cost" of the good painter's job is $13.33—the poor painter's $25.00.

A small investment in paint adds greatly to the value and beauty of your property and makes you a "good neighbor" by making a good neighborhood. Good painting is one of the best investments and pays big returns in improved values. It's a saving, not an expense. But when you paint—buy only

Kinloch HOUSE PAINT

There's one indisputable reason why, a reason every honest painter will acknowledge—"The Oil is the Life of Paint," and the sure way to get good oil is to buy it fresh and pure from the dealer's barrel, not from the ready-mixed paint can. The paint that is ready to mix with linseed oil, gallon for gallon, is KINLOCH PAINT, and we recommend its use for every good reason we know.

"Preparation is the secret of success." All the failures of life—failure in business, professions commercial and otherwise, are all for want of preparation. The laborer prepares for his day's work by resting in the night and refreshing himself with food during the day. The tradesman prepares himself by studying how to conduct his business, and the professional man by continuous study in the line of his profession.

Wine of Cardui Cured Her.

213 South Prior Street, ATLANTA, GA., March 21, 1902.

I suffered for four months with extreme nervousness and lassitude. I had a sinking feeling in my stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, and losing my appetite I became weak and lost my vitality. In three weeks I lost fourteen pounds of flesh and felt that I must find speedy relief to regain my health. Having heard of Wine of Cardui praised by several of my friends, I sent for a bottle and was certainly very pleased with the results. Within three days my appetite returned and my stomach troubled me no more. I could digest my food without difficulty and the nervousness gradually diminished. Nature performed her functions without difficulty and I am once more a happy and well woman.

The Right Kind of a Governor.

Governor Mickey, of Nebraska, has inaugurated a new requisite to correct government. He has called on all his appointees to office who indulge in the habit of swearing and drinking and other offenses to account for their laxity in morals. He signifies his intention to retain no person in office who does not have commendable moral habits.

I have been a wage-earner, foreman and employer. I have had a thousand men on my payroll at a time, and I'll tell you this: The man with the savings-bank habit is the one who never Foreigners Not Wanted.

"Did you ever stop to think," said a gentleman to-day "that there are more counties in Kentucky where foreigners do not reside than any other State in the union? The residents are the descendants of the old families who came to Kentucky when the State was known as the dark and bloody ground, and who fought to make the State what it is to-day. They have no land to sell foreigners, they have no business to do with them, therefore the foreign population settles elsewhere. I presume the same condition of affairs will be found in these same counties 50 years now. Not anywhere else in this country can there be found a settlement more truly American. When you stop to consider the number of nationalities one meets gathered together in almost every part of the country, the way these Kentuckians have managed to keep to themselves is little less than marvelous."

Things all men can do and explain are natural; things we cannot explain are supernatural.
